Chesterfield Cooperative Extension to offer financial-management workshops

The “Minimizing Holiday Debt” workshops on Thursday, Oct. 18, 10 a.m.-noon, and 6:30-8:30 p.m., will offer tips for minimizing debt from the three-month spending period before the New Year. Many people get so carried away at the holidays that it will take them the next six months to a year or more to dig out from holiday debt.

The “Making Your Money Go Further” workshops on Thursday, Nov. 8, 2007, 10 a.m.-noon and 6:30-8:30 p.m., will help participants increase personal knowledge and skills in setting goals, decision making, teaching kids about money, and making and managing a spending plan.

The “Getting out of Debt” workshops on Tuesday, Dec. 4, 10 a.m.-noon and 6:30-8:30 p.m., will offer self-help steps for over users of credit and give techniques on developing and following through on a debt payment plan.

All workshops are free and open to the public. Pre-registration is encouraged. To register for a morning or evening session, call Linda Cole, Family and Consumer Sciences Extension Agent, at 751-4401.

All workshops are held at the Chesterfield Cooperative Extension Office, 6807 Mimms Loop, Chesterfield, VA 23832 in the county government complex.

If you are a person with a disability and desire any assistive devices, services or other accommodations to participate in these activities, please call Chesterfield Cooperative Extension at (804) 751-4401/TDD (800) 828-1120 during business hours, 8 a.m.-5 p.m. to discuss accommodations five days prior to the event.
